SECTION B - STATUTORY PROVISIONS

Line	Review Requirement	Reference	Items that must be included with Filing	Location/Affirmed
1.B.1	Limitations: Cancellation/ Non-renewal	215 ILCS 5/351A-4	A policy may not be non-renewed or terminated due to age or deterioration of the mental or physical health of the insured. A policy may not contain a provision establishing a new waiting period in the event existing coverage is converted or replaced by a new or other form unless the insured individual or policyholder voluntarily chooses an increase in benefits. A policy may not provide coverage for skilled nursing care only or provide significantly more coverage for skilled care in a facility than coverage for lower levels of care.
1.B.2	Pre-Existing Conditions	215 ILCS 5/351A-5 50 IAC 2012.60(d)	No policy issued on other than a group basis may use a definition of "pre-existing condition" which is more restrictive than: Preexisting condition means the existence of symptoms which would cause an ordinarily prudent person to seek diagnosis, care or treatment, or a condition for which medical advice or treatment was recommended by, or received from a provider of health care services, within 6 months preceding the effective date of coverage for an insured person. The provision must appear as a separate paragraph in the policy or certificate and be captioned as "Preexisting Condition Limitations".
1.B.3	No Prior Hospitalization	215 ILCS 5/351A-6	No policy may require a prior hospitalization confinement as a condition for eligibility for benefits, nor require a higher level of institutional care as a condition for eligibility for benefits in another institutional care setting. This provision is also applicable to home health care.
1.B.4	Free Look INDIVIDUAL ONLY	215 ILCS 5/351A-7	An individual policyholder will have the right to return the policy with full refund of premium within 30 days of its delivery.
1.B.5	Outline of Coverage GROUP and INDIVIDUAL	215 ILCS 5/351A-8 50 IAC 2012.130 50 IAC Exhibit C	No policy shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this State unless an outline of coverage either accompanies the policy, or is delivered to the applicant at the time the application is made, and an acknowledgment signed by the insured, of receipt of such outline, is provided to the insurer.
1.B.6	Group Disclosure GROUP ONLY	215 ILCS 5/351A-9	A certificate issued pursuant to a group long-term care insurance policy shall include: A description of the principal benefits and coverage provided in the policy; a statement of the principal exclusions, reductions and limitations contained in the policy; and a statement that the group master policy determines governing contractual provisions.
1.B.7	Policy Summary for Individual Life Insurance with Long Term Care Benefits Rider	215 ILCS 5/351A-9.1 50 IAC 2012.60(f)	There must be a disclosure for an accelerated life policy. It must include an explanation of how the LTC benefit interacts with other components of the policy (amount, length, and guaranteed lifetime benefits for each person covered; any exclusions, reductions, and limitations on long term care; and current and projected max lifetime benefits), as well as an illustration regarding benefits. The disclosure must appear on the policy summary and outline of coverage.
1.B.8	Claim Denial / Explanation	215 ILCS 5/351A-9.3	If a claim is denied and the insured provides a written inquiry, the insurer is required to respond within 60 days and provide the reasons for denial as well as make available all information directly related to it.	Affirmed <input type="checkbox"/>

SECTION C - ADMINISTRATIVE CODE PROVISIONS

Line	Review Requirement	Reference	Items that must be included with Filing	Location/Affirmed
1.C.1	Policy Definitions	50 IAC 2012.40	No long-term care insurance policy shall use the terms set forth 50 IAC 2012.40, unless the terms are defined in the policy.
1.C.2	Renewability	50 IAC 2012.50(a) 50 IAC 2012.60(a)	The terms "guaranteed renewable" and "noncancellable" shall not be used in any group and individual direct response or individual long-term care policy or certificate without explanatory language. Individual policies must contain a renewability provision on the first page of the policy and must state that the policy is guaranteed renewable or noncancellable.
1.C.3	Allowable Exclusions	50 IAC 2012.50(b)	Allowable limitations and exclusions: (1). Preexisting conditions or diseases; (2). Mental or nervous disorders (Alzheimer's Disease and senile dementia must be covered); (3). Alcoholism and drug addiction; (4). Illness, treatment or medical condition arising out of: a). war or act of war (whether declared or undeclared); b). participation in a felony, riot or insurrection; c). service in the armed forces or units auxiliary thereto; d). suicide (sane or insane), attempted suicide or intentionally self-inflicted injury; e). or aviation (this exclusion applies only to non-fare paying passengers); (5). Expenses for services or items available or paid under another traditional long-term care insurance or health insurance policy; (7). In the case of a tax qualified long-term care insurance contract, expenses for services or items to the extent that the expenses are reimbursable under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act or would be so reimbursable but for the application of a deductible or coinsurance amount.

1.C.4	Alzheimer's/Dementia	50 IAC 2012.50(b)(2)	A policy shall not permit exclusion or limitation of benefits on the basis of Alzheimer's Disease or senile dementia.
1.C.5	Extension of Benefits	50 IAC 2012.50(c)	Extension of benefits must be provided up to the duration of the benefit period, if any, or to payment of the maximum benefits.
1.C.6	Continuation/ Conversion GROUP ONLY	50 IAC 2012.50(d)(1-5)	Group Long Term Care insurance must provide insureds with a basis for continuation or conversion of coverage. An application for a converted policy must be made within 31 days after termination of the group policy and must be effective on the day after termination. It must be issued on a guaranteed renewable basis.
1.C.7	Discontinuance/ Replacement GROUP ONLY	50 IAC 2012.50(e)	If a group LTC policy is replaced by another group plan the succeeding insurer must offer coverage to all covered persons under the previous group policy on its date of termination.	Affirmed <input type="checkbox"/>
1.C.8	Prohibition on Premium Increases	50 IAC 2012.50(f)	The premiums charged to an insured shall not increase due to either the increasing age of the insured at ages beyond 65 or the duration the insured has been covered under the policy.
1.C.9	Skilled Nursing Care	50 IAC 2012.50(g)	A policy may not provide coverage for skilled nursing care only, or contain a provision providing significantly more coverage for skilled care in a facility than for coverage at lower levels of care.
1.C.10	Deterioration of Physical or Mental Health	50 IAC 2012.50(j)(3)(A)	No LTC policy may be cancelled, nonrenewed or otherwise terminated on the grounds of the age or the deterioration of the mental or physical health of the insured individual or certificate holder.
1.C.11	Unintentional Lapse	50 IAC 2012.55	No individual long-term care policy shall be issued until the insurer receives from the applicant a written designation of at least one other individual who is to receive notice of termination of the policy for nonpayment of premium. A written waiver of this provision is permissible. The policy shall contain a provision that provides for reinstatement of coverage, in the event of lapse if the insurer is provided proof that the policyholder or certificate holder was cognitively impaired or had a loss of functional capacity before the grace period contained in the policy expired.
1.C.12	Renewability INDIVIDUAL ONLY	50 IAC 2012.60(a)	Individual long-term care insurance policies shall contain a renewability provision. The provision shall be appropriately captioned, shall appear on the first page of the policy, and shall clearly state that the coverage is guaranteed renewable or noncancellable.
1.C.13	Benefit Reduction or Elimination Riders and Endorsements	50 IAC 2012.60(b)	Any riders or endorsements added to an individual long-term care policy after the date of issue that reduce or eliminate benefits or coverage require signed acceptance by the insured.
1.C.14	Payment of Benefits/ Usual and Customary	50 IAC 2012.60(c)	Terms such as "usual and customary" or "reasonable and customary" must be defined in the policy.
1.C.15	Disclosure for Accelerated Life Insurance - Policy Summary NON-QUALIFIED LTC POLICIES	50 IAC 2012.60(f)	Any individual life insurance policy that contains a rider for LTC benefits must include a policy summary that includes: (1). an explanation of how the long-term care benefit interacts with other components of the policy, including deductions from death benefits; (2). an illustration of the amount of benefits, the length of benefit, and the guaranteed lifetime benefits if any, for each covered person; (3). any exclusion, reductions and limitations on benefits of long-term care; and (4). if applicable to the policy type: a). disclosure of the effects of exercising other rights under the policy; b). disclosure of guarantees related to long-term care costs of insurance charges; and c). current and projected maximum lifetime benefits. This requirement does not apply to qualified long-term care contracts.
1.C.16	Disclosure of Tax Consequences NON-QUALIFIED LTC POLICIES	50 IAC 2012.60(g)	For policies that provide an accelerated benefit for long-term care, a disclosure statement is required at the time of application for the policy or rider and at the time the accelerated benefit payment request is submitted, that receipt of these accelerated benefits may be taxable, and that assistance should be sought from a personal tax advisor. This disclosure statement shall be prominently displayed on the first page of the policy or rider and any other related documents. This requirement does not apply to qualified long-term care contracts.
1.C.17	Benefit Triggers	50 IAC 2012.60(h)	Activities of daily living and cognitive impairment shall be described in the policy or certificate in a separate paragraph and shall be labeled "Eligibility for the Payment of Benefits".

1.C.18	Tax Qualified Disclosure	50 IAC 2012.60(i) & (j) 50 IAC 2012.Exhibit C (3)	A qualified long-term care insurance contract shall include a disclosure statement in the policy and in the outline of coverage that indicates that the policy is intended to be a qualified long-term care insurance contract under Section 7702B(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 USC 7702B(b)).
1.C.19	Required Disclosure of Rating Practices to Consumers	50 IAC 2012.62 50 IAC 2012.Exhibit F 50 IAC 2012.Exhibit J	Each policy must contain the disclosures required in the Exhibits. An insurer must provide at least 45 days notice to all policyholders or certificate holders prior to implementing a premium rate increase. The notification must include the information required by the Exhibits.
1.C.20	Actuarial Certification	50 IAC 2012.64(b)	An insurer shall provide to the Director 30 days prior to making a long-term care insurance form available for sale an actuarial certification consisting of: (1). A statement that the initial premium rate schedule is sufficient to cover anticipated costs under moderately adverse experience and that the premium rate schedule is reasonably expected to be sustainable over the life of the form with no future premium increases anticipated; (2). A statement that the policy design and coverage provided have been reviewed and taken into consideration; (3). A statement that the underwriting and claims adjudication processes have been reviewed and taken into consideration; (4). A complete description of the basis for contract reserves that are anticipated to be held under the form; (5). A statement that the premium rate schedule is not less than the premium rate schedule for existing similar policy forms also available from the insurer except for reasonable differences attributable to benefits; or a comparison of the premium schedules for similar policy forms that are currently available from the insurer with an explanation of the differences.
1.C.21	Post Claims Underwriting	50 IAC 2012.65(a)(1) & (2)	If the application contains a question asking whether a physician has prescribed medication(s) it must also ask the applicant to list the medications. If the medications were known to the insurer or were included in the insurer's underwriting standards at the time of the application, and are directly related to a condition for which coverage would otherwise have been denied, the policy may not be rescinded for that condition.
1.C.22	Minimum Standards for Home Health and Community Care Benefits	50 IAC 2012.70	A long-term care insurance policy or certificate may not, if it provides benefits for home health care or community care services, limit or exclude benefits: (1). By requiring that the insured/claimant would need skilled care in a skilled nursing facility if home health care services were not provided; (2). By requiring that the insured/claimant first or simultaneously receive nursing and/or therapeutic services in a home or community or institutional setting before home health care services are covered; (3). By limiting eligible services to services provided by registered nurses or licensed practical nurses; (4). By requiring that a nurse or therapist provide services covered by the policy that can be provided by a home health aide, or other licensed or certified home care worker acting within the scope of his or her licensure or certification; (5). By requiring that the insured/claimant have an acute condition before home health care services are covered; (6). By excluding coverage for personal care services provided by a home health aide; (7). By requiring that the provision of home health care services be at a level of certification or licensure greater than that required by the eligible service; (8). By limiting benefits to services provided by Medicare-certified agencies or providers; (9). By excluding coverage for adult day care services. Policies shall provide total home health or community care coverage that is a dollar amount equivalent to at least one-half of one year's coverage available for nursing home benefits under the policy or certificate, at the time covered home health or community care services are being received.
1.C.23	Inflation Protection	50 IAC 2012.80	Insurers must offer to each policyholder, at the time of purchase, the option to purchase a policy with an inflation protection feature no less favorable than one of the following: (1). Increases benefit levels annually in a manner so that the increases are compounded annually at a rate not less than 5%; (2). Guarantees the insured individual the right to periodically increase benefit levels without providing evidence of insurability or health status so long as the option for the previous period has not been declined. The amount of the additional benefit shall be no less than the difference between the existing policy benefit and that benefit compounded annually at a rate of at least 5% for the period beginning with the purchase of the existing benefit and extending until the year in which the offer is made; or (3). Covers a specified percentage of actual or reasonable charges and does not include a maximum specified indemnity amount or limit. Any rejection of the offer must be received in writing and signed by the policyholder.
1.C.24	Requirement to Offer Nonforfeiture Benefit	50 IAC 2012.86 50 IAC 2012.127	An insurer may not issue a policy unless it includes a written offer to include nonforfeiture benefits to the defaulting policyholder or certificate holder. This section does not apply to life insurance policies or riders containing accelerated LTC benefits.
1.C.25	Application Forms and Replacement Coverage	50 IAC 2012.90 50 IAC 2012.Exhibit A 50 IAC 2012.Exhibit B	Forms shall include the following questions designed to elicit information as to whether, as of the date of the application, the applicant has another long-term care policy or certificate in force or whether a long-term care policy or certificate is intended to replace any other accident and sickness or long-term care policy or certificate presently in force: (1). Do you have another long-term care policy or certificate in force (including health care service contract, HMO contract)? (2). Did you have another long-term care insurance policy or certificate in force during the last 12 months? a). If so, with which company? b). If that policy lapsed, when did it lapse? (3). Are you covered by Medicaid? (4). Do you intend to replace any of your medical or health insurance coverage with this policy (certificate)? The required notice shall be provided as set forth in Exhibit A and Exhibit B.

1.C.26	Standards for Marketing	50 IAC 2012.122	Each outline of coverage for a LTC policy must contain by type or stamp on the first page: "Notice to buyer: this policy may not cover all the costs associated with long-term care incurred by the buyer during the period of coverage. The buyer is advised to review carefully all policy limitations."
1.C.27	Suitability	50 IAC 2012.123 50 IAC 2012.Exhibit G 50 IAC 2012.Exhibit H	Insurers of long-term care policies to develop and use suitable standards for determining whether the purchase or replacement of coverage is appropriate and provide the consumer a copy of Exhibits G and Exhibit H. This section also provides additional details regarding the personal worksheet. This requirement does not apply to life insurance policies that accelerate benefits for long-term care.
1.C.28	Right to Reduce Coverage and Lower Premiums	50 IAC 2012.126	Every long-term care insurance policy and certificate shall include a provision that allows the policyholder or certificate holder to reduce coverage and lower the policy or certificate premium in at least one of the following ways Reducing the maximum benefit; or Reducing the daily, weekly or monthly benefit amount. The provision shall include a description of the ways in which coverage may be reduced and the process for requesting and implementing a reduction in coverage. This requirement does not apply to life insurance policies that accelerate benefits for long-term care.
1.C.29	Premium Increase Notice/Premium Increase Notification Letter	50 IAC 2012.62 (e), 50 IAC 2012.110 (b) (E) (ii), 50 IAC 2012.112 (b) (7) (B), 50 IAC 2012.126(h)	The premium increase notice required by Section 2012.62 (e) must include a summary of all available standard benefit reduction/rate increase mitigation actions for the given policy, one of which must be an offer to reduce policy benefits provided by the current coverage. If there are variations, such as reducing benefit period to a certain timeframe or a different timeframe, it is not necessary to list all possible variations of a standard option. Including customized benefit and premium amounts would be beneficial for the policyholder to see when choosing the best option for them and it is therefore encouraged. The premium increase notice must also include a disclosure stating that all options available to the policyholder may not be of equal value.
1.C.30	Standards for Benefit Triggers	50 IAC 2012.128	LTC policies must condition the payment of benefits based on a determination of the insured's ability to perform activities of daily living and on cognitive impairment. Eligibility for the payment of benefits shall not be more restrictive than requiring either a deficiency in the ability to perform not more than 3 of the activities of daily living or the presence of cognitive impairment. Activities of daily living shall include: Bathing; Continence; Dressing; Eating; Toileting; and Transferring.
1.C.31	Standards for Benefit Triggers for Qualified LTC Policies	50 IAC 2012.129	A qualified LTC policy shall only pay for services received by a chronically ill insured provided according to a plan of care prescribed by a licensed health care practitioner. The policy must base payment of benefits on a determination of the insured's inability to perform activities of daily living for an expected period of at least 90 days due to loss of functional capacity or to severe cognitive impairment. Non-tax-qualified long-term care contracts may not condition benefits on this provision.
1.C.32	Standard Format Outline of Coverage Requirements	50 IAC 2012.130 50 IAC 2012.Exhibit C	The standard format, including style, arrangement and overall appearance, and the content of an outline of coverage appears in Exhibit C.
1.C.33	Shopper's Guide (and requirements for delivery)	50 IAC 2012.140	The Shopper's Guide in the format developed by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners shall be provided to all prospective applicants of a long-term care insurance policy or certificate. The Shopper's Guide may be submitted with the Outline of Coverage under one informational transmittal sheet.
